By an advertisement in another column it will be seen that Mr. M. Orogan, Wagon master of the Forty-eighth Ohio, Colonel Sullivan's Regiment, wants twenty five men to act as teamsters. This regiment, it is thought, will leave Camp Dennison in a few days.

Captain William Shay, of the Fifty-second Ohio Regiment, has his company now al-most complete. There are yet a few vacan-cles, and we would recommend those who are warlike in spirit to cast their lot with Captain Shay.

Captain Reemly and Lieutenant Rudolphi of the Fifth Ohio, now stationed at Romney, Va., are about departing for the purpose of joining their regiment on Wednesday, and will take all letters for the Fifth Onio left at the Pass office. Both gentlemen look remarkably well, notwithstanding their hard marches, rough fare and "bloody conflicts."

SANITARY COMMUSION.—The members of the Cincinnati branch of the United States Sanitary Commission are requested to meet this evening at the residence of Dr. H. Mus-sey, Seventh-street, near Vine. B. P. BAKER, Recording Secretary.

An election for officers of Cincinnati Lodge No. 133 of Free and Accepted Masons, to serve for the ensuing year, resulted as follows: J. R. Blakemore, W. M; J. H. Hewes, S. W.; —— Adkin, J. W; Leopold Burckhard, Treasurer; Lawrence Guerin, Secretary; Wilson J. Kirk, S. D.; Wm. R. Mat-

Indian Summer .- The seasons of the year would not be complete without an Indian summer. We have for the past few days been having one. Mist, smoke, low hung clouds and sultry air. Throw windows and doors wide open, and take the last full in-halation of the life-sustaining element; then wrsp your cloak closely about you and pre-pare to plunge into the rigors of winter. His reign will be brief. Already is the first mouth of the three well nigh one-third

WHO IS TO BLAYS?-The speaker at Union Hall, last night, after talking three-quarters of an hour, promised his hearers to stop in lifteen minutes longer. Instead of that he kept on for another three-quarters. The less polite portion of the audience reminded him of his promise by most unexpected manifes-tations of applause. His remarks could not be heard by all, and hence the impatience. Who was most blameworthy in this stance, speaker or hearers? We think ormer. Public lecturers should take the

The armual meeting of the Cincinnati Sketch hub was held on Saturday evening, pursuant to an announcement, at the residence of H. W. Worrall, on Laurel-street. "Hard Times" was illustrated in a manner indicating a thorough experimental acquaintance with the subject, and provoking much merriment. The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year: President, Thomas D. Jones; Vice-President, C. F. Webber; Secretary, W. P. Noble; Treasurer, H.

Y. M. M. L. ABBEST OF STRAMBOAT OFFICERS FOR MAN-SLAUGHTER.—William Price, Captain; H. B. Cunningham, Clerk; Asa O. Woodward and C. Price, Pilots, and Levi Chapman and John M. Keown, Eugineers, of the steamer Igo, whose boller burst at Hills Landing, in October last, killing two passengers, were brought to this city on Saturday in charge of Deputy United States Marshal Small, and will undergo an examination before Commis-sioner Halliday for manslaughter to-morrow. The arrests were made at the instance of Benjamin Crawford, Esq , of Pittsburg, super-vising Inspector for this district.

ON THE MARCH.—Colonel Sargent's detachment from the Fifty-second Regiment, to-gether with the regimental band, Menter's, left our city to day on a recruiting tour. They proceed to Cumminsville, thence to College Hill, Mount Pleasant, through Grossbeck, Georgetown, Venice, Baltimore, New Haven, Harrison and Miamitown, which ister place will finish the march. The squed take a wagon train, camp equipage, commissary stores, and are fully armed and equipped. Menter's excellent band will arouse the citizens and farmers with its refreshing music, and we doubt not the tramp will be successful in its object. will be successful in its object.

First Ohio Cavalry.—Three companies of the First Ohio Cavalry are now in service in Kentucky. The nine companies in Camp Chase have been ordered there also, and will move to day. The officer are:

WOOD'S THEATER-French Spy .- Miss Adah Issacs Menken, a lady whose name has figured conspicuously in journals of the East and West, North and South, associated with romance and reality, commences an en-gagement at this theater to night. She is an accomplished actress, blending art with nature in a pleasing and fascinating style. Miss Adah possesses a fine figure, and is endowed with a generous supply of qualities, which, in the eye of the public, render her beautiful. In short, Miss Adah is clever and handsome, and to-night appears in the French Spy. Miss McWilliams makes her first appearance as "Louiss," in The Dead

Self Culture-Fifteen Dictionaries, With the Aid of which One Can Educate Him. self. Judge Johnston, last night, at Union Hall, made some excellent remarks upon self cul-ture. He proposed to describe "a method ture. by which a young man who has seither money nor education may become intelligent and learned." The first thing necessary is the practice of self-denial. If you can not quit the beer saloon, and thus by self-denial guit the beer saloon, and thus by self-demail save money, these remarks are not meant for you. You must get money. This will be necessary to purchase the following books, which will be found Indispensible in your efforts to educate yourself:

STRALING NEWSPAPERS. — Subscribers to the various newspapers of the city have frequently complained of not receiving their paper, and, often unjustly, attach the blame to the proprietors. This morning some officers about the Postoffice, were set on watch in the rear of the building, and at about five o'clock detected three newsboys in the act of stealing some packages of morning papers, which had been prepared to be sent away by Express. Two of them were caught, named James Logan and Michael Hussy. The former was fined $30 and the latter $10.

Boys in Court.-Ouite a number of boys of various ages were in the Police Court this morning, on charge of drunkenness. Some of them were found perfectly helpless, lying in the street. It is a pitiful sight to see youth thus early take the initiatory step to a life of crime. And yet many, not over twelve years of age, think it is manly to drink a glass of beer occasionally. Shame on those who set such a pattern of manhood for their imitation! The full extent of the law to those who give or sell them the lique. who give or sell them the liquor.

GRAND LARGENY.—Joseph D. Lovey was arraigned before the Police Court this morn-ing on charge of stealing $140 in gold coin from the house of a Mrs. Nolan on Fifthstreet. He afterward made a bargain with a saloon-keeper to purchase his establish-ment, and offered the identical money stolen as partial payment for the same. The case was continued till Wednesday under bail of Gameling.—Chauncey Couch, keeper of a saloon, No. 9 East Fourth-street, was this morning fined $100, by Judge Saffin, for keeping a gaming-house, and J. U. Mulrain, for gambling, was fined $50. Both pleaded guilty of the charge.

LAW REPORT:

SUPERIOR COURT. GENERAL TERM .- Shillito us. the Merchants' d Manufacturers' Insurance Company udge Hoadly delivered the opinion. Judge Hoadly delivered the opinion. The question was as to the existence of a custom of shipping merchandise on the deck of a line of vessels running between Baltimore and New York; the principle of law claimed to exist being that goods carried on deck are not within the policy of insurance. The Court referred to the law laid down in text writers on the subject and to the decisions of various tribunals in America and in England, which were conflicting.

land, which were conflicting.

The Court was of opinion that the course of trade between the two points indicated at the time of insurance and previously was to ship on deck or under deck, as happened to be convenient, in the estimation of the master of the vessel, and reversed the finding at special term, which was in favor of defendant. # COVINGTON NEWS.

THE GREAT UNION MEETING SATURDAY THE GREAT UNION MEETING SATURDAY NIGHT.—The meeting organized by the elec-tion of Mr. S. Easton to the chair. Robert Richardson, Ezq., was chosen Secretary. After an explanation of the object of the meeting by the President, which was the nemination of a ticket for the approaching January election, Mr. Laird arose and offered a resolution to the effect that every candidate should run on his own hook-in fact, that no nominations should be made. This created considerable excitement, and for a time confusion reigned supreme. After numberless efforts order was sgain restored, when several votes were taken on Mr. Laird's resclution, which was finally adopted.

Colonel Foley being present was called upon for a speech, to which he acceded. He administered a withering rebuke to the unusual number of aspirants for office at the present time, who, he said, should be in the field defending the honor of their country's flag, instead of grasping after and quarreling over the emoluments of a petty office. For his part, he hoped no man under fifty years of age would be elected to fill any office. He was loudly applauded.

Mr. Casey followed in a neat speech, in which he condemned conventions of every kind, and the present one in particular.

At the conclusion of Mr. Casey's remarks a gentleman arose, who offered a resolution that the meeting appoint a committee of three to petition the Legislature to repeal the law requiring voting by ballot, which was lost by a small majority.

Mr. Richardson offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That while this meeting does not deem it expedient to nominate caudidates for any office, we carnestly recommend to the Union men of Covington to vote for no candidate who is not a true and tried friend of the Union, and devoted to its pre-

A CALL TO THE BENEVOLENT .- A meeting A CALL TO THE BENEVOLENT.—A meeting is called to night at seven o clock, at the Union Armory, corner of Fourth and Greenup-streets, to devise ways and means for the relief of the suffering poor in our midst. Winter with its chilling blasts is upon us, and there are many among us who must be provided for. Every day we meet upon the streets men, women and children, whose scantily clad forms and picched faces tell but too plainly the strength with rowards. whose scaling that forms an extractive tell but too plainly the struggle with poverty and want. Remember, "He who casteth his bread upon the waters, shall find it after many days."

Romantic.—The City Marshal, Clinton Butts, detected quite a good looking young woman in soldier's attire on Saturday, and had her sent to Camp King, where, it appears, she has been in Colonel Mundy's regiment for seve for several months without her sex being known.

When discovered by the officer, she was quite iil, and had been endeavoring to procure opium at some of the drug stores. It was owing to ber illness, no doubt, that her s x was discovered, for she was moaning pitcously, and showed every symptom of her womanly nature. She has passed under the name of Andy Fitzallen, and was one of the best drilled and most dutiful soldiers in the camp. She refuses to give her proper name, but states that she is a Canadian. THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS .- According to the last report of the Superintendent of Public Schools, it appears that nine hundred and sixty-three pupils have been enrolled in this city, four hundred and sixty-one of whom are females; ninety-seven have withdrawn aving eight hundred and sixty six in at tendance, which gives an average of fifty-four to each teacher. The schools are in a flourishing condition, and will undergo their annual exhibitions from the 16th to the 24th inst. [COMMUNICATED.]

BATUBDAY EVENING, Dec. 7, 1861. On motion, mananimously resolved, the thanks of this Club be tendered to the owners, captain and officers of the steam-boat Lancaster No 4, for their patriotism, generosity and benevolence in transporting om time to time, whenever requested, and landing the same on the Newport side of the river, grain, provisions, &c., which have been donated for the indigent families of our volunteers; and for carrying back and forth, as occasion requires, our agent, who is stending to the business, free of charge; and we do hereby take this occasion to re-commend said boat as among the best of her class navigating the Ohio River. We can not but appreciate these acts of generosity and patriotism more highly from the favorable contrast in which they stand to the course pursued by the Directors of the Newport and Alexandria Turnpike, who, on application, refused to permit any fire wood or other property to pass over their road Ladies' Balmoral boots sold at A. General Cameron or Governor Seward must leave the Cabinet, and an entire recast be made.

"The President finally settled it by going to General Cameron and insisting upon his confining his report to a statement of the past, and not distate to Congress what they should do. Cameron insisted that his policy was correct, and must be carried out at once. The President assured him that it did not follow, if he changed his report or left out any of it, that he must necessarily change his policy, but that be could carry it out; only let Congress take held of the matter first. With this understand-ing, General Cameron made an alteration, which we telegraphed you after midnight. It was requested of us that we would not publish the original copy, but as it has been made public in other sources, we append the original.

"Secretaries Welles and Chase both sided with General Cameroc; but Welles would not make any fight on it, and 'would leave it to the President.' Chase, also, would not stand up to the fight, and Cameron, consequently, at the last moment modified it. In the mean time, it only remains for the Senate and Heuse to dictate what shall be done."
